Heba is a Jordanian artist who is also a marketing professional. She is currently the chief marketing officer at a healthcare technology brand in the UAE. Heba has been painting for many years and has been taught by renowned artists in Jordan. She has been inspired by both local and international artists.

Her work has been sold in Jordan and abroad. She has a love for impressionism and abstract art. In her figures, you will rarely see clear-cut features, making you rely mainly on your imagination. Whenever she paints women, they are always dreamy and looking at the horizons to the future. A number of her paintings are currently exhibited at Wadi Finan Gallery in Amman.
